

A Solemn Procession FROM GROUND ZERO AND Nonviolent Die-in AT THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

OUR AIM IS TO CONFRONT the administration with the death and suffering for which they are responsible:

the deaths of more than 10,000 Iraqis and Afghans, as many as 1,000 Americans killed, thousands more wounded and scarred for life, as well as the economic victims of Bush policies — the unemployed, the uninsured, the undereducated.

The Republicans have chosen to hold their convention in New York City to link George Bush and “Ground Zero.” Bush’s policies have created “ground zeros” of death and suffering throughout the world, and we hold him accountable for that.

We have spoken out, we have written letters, we have marched, we have rallied . . . we have been ignored. Now we resort to the nonviolent civil disobedience of Thoreau, as employed by the civil rights, labor, feminist, peace, gay/lesbian, and other movements in order to be heard and to be reckoned with.

“Nonviolent direct action seeks to create such a crisis and foster such a tension that a community which has constantly refused to negotiate is forced to confront the issue. It seeks so to dramatize the issue that it can no longer be ignored.”

“Letter from Birmingham Jail,” 1963
